WHO Classification of Tumours, 5th edition: Digestive System Tumours
Corrections made in second print run

Summary of corrections:

Mitotic count

1. The term "mitotic rate" has been corrected to "mitotic count" throughout the book:
   - p. 16, column 1, paragraph 2 (×2)
   - p. 16, Table 1.01 (×2)
   - p. 17, column 2, paragraph 3 (×2)
   - p. 18, column 1, paragraph 4
   - p. 33, column 2, paragraph 2

   - p. 344, column 2, paragraph 2
   - p. 438, column 2, paragraph 1
   - p. 487, column 1, paragraph 1

2. The term "mitotic index" has been corrected to "mitotic count" throughout the book:
   - p. 332, column 1, paragraph 2
   - p. 344, column 2, paragraph 2
   - p. 438, column 2, paragraph 1
   - p. 487, column 1, paragraph 1

Microsatellite-unstable

1. The term "microsatellite-instable (MSI)" has been corrected to "microsatellite-unstable" throughout the book:
   - p. 64, column 2, paragraph 2
   - p. 77, Fig. 3.13
   - p. 77, column 1, paragraph 1
   - p. 87, column 1, paragraph 3

   - p. 541, column 1, paragraph 4

2. In addition to the corrections listed to the left, the following changes have also been made:
   - p. 91, column 1, paragraph 2: “MSI” has been changed to “microsatellite instability (MSI)” in order to define the abbreviation upon first mention in the section.
   - p. 94, Table 3.05: In the footnote, the definition “MSI, microsatellite-instable” has been corrected to “MSI, microsatellite instability”
   - p. 125, column 1, paragraph 2: “MSI” has been changed to “Microsatellite instability (MSI)” in order to define the abbreviation upon first mention in the section.
   - p. 336, column 1, paragraph 1: “microsatellite instability” has been changed to “microsatellite instability (MSI)” in order to define the abbreviation upon first mention in the section.
   - p. 336, column 1, paragraph 1: “microsatellite instability--targeted” has been changed to “MSI-targeted”
The entries for “Hyperplastic polyp, microvesicular type” and “Hyperplastic polyp, goblet cell” have been deleted.

The following footnote has been added at the bottom of the page:

Note: The mitotic rates (counts) listed under the “G Histopathological Grading” heading above are based on a field area of 0.1 mm² as used in the original paper; modern microscopes are likely to have a field area of 0.2 mm², but measurement of field area is advisable, because instruments vary.
