

Contents

|                                              |            |                                         |            |
|----------------------------------------------|------------|-----------------------------------------|------------|
| 1 Nasal cavity and paranasal sinuses  | 9   |                                         |            |
| WHO and TNM classification                   | 10         | Epithelial precursor lesions            | 140        |
| Introduction                                 | 12         | Benign epithelial tumours               |            |
| Malignant epithelial tumours                 |            | Papilloma / papillomatosis              | 144        |
| Squamous cell carcinoma                      | 15         | Benign salivary gland-type tumours      | 146        |
| Lymphoepithelial carcinoma                   | 18         | Malignant soft tissue tumours           | 147        |
| Sinonasal undifferentiated carcinoma         | 19         | Inflammatory myofibroblastic tumour     | 150        |
| Adenocarcinoma                               | 20         | Benign soft tissue tumours              | 152        |
| Salivary gland-type carcinomas               | 24         | Haematolymphoid tumours                 | 155        |
| Neuroendocrine tumours                       | 26         | Tumours of bone and cartilage           | 156        |
| Benign epithelial tumours                    |            | Mucosal malignant melanoma              | 160        |
| Schneiderian papillomas                      | 28         | Secondary tumours                       | 162        |
| Respiratory epithelial adenomatoid hamartoma | 33         |                                         |            |
| Salivary gland-type adenomas                 | 34         | 4 Oral cavity and oropharynx     | 163 |
| Soft tissue tumours                          |            | WHO and TNM classification              | 164        |
| Malignant soft tissue tumours                | 35         | Introduction                            | 166        |
| Borderline and LMP tumours                   | 43         | Malignant epithelial tumours            |            |
| Benign soft tissue tumours                   | 46         | Squamous cell carcinoma                 | 168        |
| Tumours of bone and cartilage                |            | Lymphoepithelial carcinoma              | 176        |
| Malignant tumours                            | 51         | Epithelial precursor lesions            | 177        |
| Benign tumours                               | 53         | Proliferative verrucous leukoplakia     | 180        |
| Haematolymphoid tumours                      | 58         | Precancerous conditions                 | 180        |
| Neuroectodermal tumours                      | 65         | Benign epithelial tumours               |            |
| Germ cell tumours                            | 76         | Papillomas                              | 182        |
| Secondary tumours                            | 80         | Granular cell tumour                    | 185        |
|                                              |            | Keratoacanthoma                         | 187        |
| 2 Nasopharynx                         | 81  | Papillary hyperplasia                   | 189        |
| WHO and TNM classification                   | 82         | Median rhomboid glossitis               | 189        |
| Introduction                                 | 83         | Salivary gland tumours                  | 190        |
| Malignant epithelial tumours                 |            | Kaposi sarcoma                          | 193        |
| Nasopharyngeal carcinoma                     | 85         | Lymphangioma                            | 195        |
| Papillary adenocarcinoma                     | 98         | Ectomesenchymal chondromyxoid tumour    | 196        |
| Salivary gland-type carcinomas               | 98         | Focal oral mucinosis                    | 197        |
| Benign epithelial tumours                    | 99         | Congenital granular cell epulis         | 198        |
| Nasopharyngeal angiofibroma                  | 102        | Haematolymphoid tumours                 | 199        |
| Haematolymphoid tumours                      | 104        | Malignant melanoma                      | 206        |
| Tumours of bone and cartilage                | 106        | Secondary tumours                       | 208        |
| Secondary tumours                            | 106        |                                         |            |
| 3 Hypopharynx, larynx and trachea     | 107 | 5 Salivary glands                | 209 |
| WHO and TNM classification                   | 108        | WHO and TNM classification              | 210        |
| Introduction                                 | 111        | Introduction                            | 212        |
| Malignant epithelial tumours                 |            | Malignant epithelial tumours            |            |
| Squamous cell carcinoma                      | 118        | Acinic cell carcinoma                   | 216        |
| Verrucous carcinoma                          | 122        | Mucoepidermoid carcinoma                | 219        |
| Basaloid squamous cell carcinoma             | 124        | Adenoid cystic carcinoma                | 221        |
| Papillary squamous cell carcinoma            | 126        | Polymorphous low-grade adenocarcinoma   | 223        |
| Spindle cell carcinoma                       | 127        | Epithelial-myoepithelial carcinoma      | 225        |
| Acantholytic squamous cell carcinoma         | 129        | Clear cell carcinoma, N.O.S.            | 227        |
| Adenosquamous carcinoma                      | 130        | Basal cell adenocarcinoma               | 229        |
| Lymphoepithelial carcinoma                   | 132        | Malignant sebaceous tumours             | 231        |
| Giant cell carcinoma                         | 133        | Cystadenocarcinoma                      | 232        |
| Malignant salivary gland-type tumours        | 134        | Low-grade cribriform cystadenocarcinoma | 233        |
| Neuroendocrine tumours                       | 135        | Mucinous adenocarcinoma                 | 234        |
|                                              |            | Oncocytic carcinoma                     | 235        |
|                                              |            | Salivary duct carcinoma                 | 236        |

|                                                                                                 |            |                                               |            |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|-----------------------------------------------|------------|
| Adenocarcinoma, N.O.S.                                                                          | 238        | Bone related lesions                          |            |
| Myoepithelial carcinoma                                                                         | 240        | Ossifying fibroma                             | 319        |
| Carcinoma ex pleomorphic adenoma                                                                | 242        | Fibrous dysplasia                             | 321        |
| Carcinosarcoma                                                                                  | 244        | Osseous dysplasias                            | 323        |
| Metastasizing pleomorphic adenoma                                                               | 245        | Central giant cell lesion                     | 324        |
| Squamous cell carcinoma                                                                         | 245        | Cherubism                                     | 325        |
| Small cell carcinoma                                                                            | 247        | Aneurysmal bone cyst                          | 326        |
| Large cell carcinoma                                                                            | 249        | Simple bone cyst                              | 327        |
| Lymphoepithelial carcinoma                                                                      | 251        |                                               |            |
| Sialoblastoma                                                                                   | 253        |                                               |            |
| Benign epithelial tumours                                                                       |            | 7 Ear                                  | 329 |
| Pleomorphic adenoma                                                                             | 254        | WHO classification                            | 330        |
| Myoepithelioma                                                                                  | 259        | External ear                                  |            |
| Basal cell adenoma                                                                              | 261        | Tumours of ceruminous glands                  | 331        |
| Warthin tumour                                                                                  | 263        | Cylindroma                                    | 332        |
| Oncocytoma                                                                                      | 266        | Squamous cell carcinoma                       | 334        |
| Canalicular adenoma                                                                             | 267        | Embryonal rhabdomyosarcoma                    | 335        |
| Sebaceous adenoma                                                                               | 268        | Fibrous dysplasia                             | 336        |
| Lymphadenomas                                                                                   | 269        | Osteoma and exostosis                         | 337        |
| Ductal papillomas                                                                               | 270        | Angiolymphoid hyperplasia with eosinophilia   | 338        |
| Cystadenoma                                                                                     | 273        | Kimura disease                                | 340        |
| Soft tissue tumours                                                                             | 275        | Idiopathic pseudocystic chondromalacia        | 341        |
| Haemangioma                                                                                     | 276        | Chondrodermatitis nodularis chronica heliciis | 341        |
| Haematolymphoid tumours                                                                         | 277        | Middle ear                                    |            |
| Secondary tumours                                                                               | 281        | Cholesterol granuloma and cholesteatoma       | 342        |
|                                                                                                 |            | Adenoma                                       | 345        |
| 6 Odontogenic tumours                                                                    | 283 | Papillary tumours                             | 346        |
| WHO classification                                                                              | 284        | Choristoma                                    | 348        |
| Introduction                                                                                    | 285        | Squamous cell carcinoma                       | 349        |
| Odontogenic carcinomas                                                                          | 287        | Meningioma                                    | 350        |
| Ameloblastic carcinomas                                                                         | 287        | Inner ear                                     |            |
| Primary intraosseous squamous cell carcinomas                                                   | 290        | Vesticular schwannoma                         | 351        |
| Clear cell odontogenic carcinoma                                                                | 292        | Neurofibromatosis type 2                      | 353        |
| Ghost cell odontogenic carcinoma                                                                | 293        | Lipoma of the internal auditory canal         | 354        |
| Odontogenic sarcomas                                                                            | 294        | Haemangioma                                   | 354        |
| Benign tumours                                                                                  |            | Endolymphatic sac tumour                      | 355        |
| Odontogenic epithelium with mature fibrous stroma, without odontogenic ectomesenchyme    |            | Haematolymphoid tumours                       | 357        |
| Ameloblastomas                                                                                  | 296        | Langerhans cell histiocytosis                 | 358        |
| Squamous odontogenic tumour                                                                     | 301        | Secondary tumours                             | 360        |
| Calcifying epithelial odontogenic tumour                                                        | 302        |                                               |            |
| Adenomatoid odontogenic tumour                                                                  | 304        | 8 Paraganglionic system                | 361 |
| Keratocystic odontogenic tumour                                                                 | 306        | Introduction                                  | 362        |
| Odontogenic epithelium with odontogenic ectomesenchyme, with or without tissue formation |            | Carotid body paraganglioma                    | 364        |
| Ameloblastic fibroma / fibrodentinoma                                                           | 308        | Jugulotympanic paraganglioma                  | 366        |
| Ameloblastic fibro-odontoma                                                                     | 309        | Vagal paraganglioma                           | 368        |
| Odontoma, complex type                                                                          | 310        | Laryngeal paraganglioma                       | 370        |
| Odontoma, compound type                                                                         | 311        |                                               |            |
| Odontoameloblastoma                                                                             | 312        | Contributors                           | 371 |
| Calcifying cystic odontogenic tumour                                                            | 313        | Source of charts and photographs       | 376 |
| Dentinogenic ghost cell tumour                                                                  | 314        | References                             | 378 |
| Mesenchyme and/or odontogenic ectomesenchyme, with or without odontogenic epithelium     |            | Subject index                          | 422 |
| Odontogenic fibroma                                                                             | 315        |                                               |            |
| Odontogenic myxoma / myxofibroma                                                                | 316        |                                               |            |
| Cementoblastoma                                                                                 | 318        |                                               |            |