

CONTENTS

3

LIST OF PARTICIPANTS .....	5
NOTE TO THE READER.....	9
PREAMBLE .....	11
Background.....	11
Objective and Scope .....	11
New Undertaking .....	12
Selection of Complex Mixtures and of Occupations for Monographs .....	12
Working Procedures.....	13
Data for Evaluations .....	13
The Working Group.....	14
General Principles for Evaluating the Carcinogenic Risk of Exposures in Occupations .....	14
GENERAL REMARKS ON WOOD, LEATHER AND SOME ASSOCIATED INDUSTRIES .....	19
THE MONOGRAPHS
Wood
The lumber and sawmill industries (including logging) .....	49
The furniture and cabinet-making industry .....	99
Carpentry and joinery .....	139
The pulp and paper industry .....	157
Leather
The leather tanning and processing industries .....	201
Boot and shoe manufacture and repair .....	249
The leather goods manufacturing industry (other than boot and shoe manufacture and tanning) .....	279
Appendices
Appendix 1: Indices of mortality among males from selected cancers according to occupation as recorded on death certificates .....	295
Appendix 2: Occupational risks associated with wood industries not further specified.....	301

Appendix 3: Occupational risks associated with leather industries not further specified.....	305
Appendix 4: Chemicals used or produced in wood and associated industries (excepting dyes), with cross references to IARC Monographs .....	311
Appendix 5: Chemicals used or produced in leather and associated industries (excepting dyes), with cross references to IARC Monographs .....	343
Appendix 6: Some dyes used in wood, leather and some associated industries, with cross references to IARC Monographs .....	371
Glossary .....	383
SUPPLEMENTARY CORRIGENDA TO VOLUMES 1-24 .....	391
CUMULATIVE INDEX .....	393